Joel McIvor cuts the opposition defence to ribbons

Perth-Bayswater Premier Grade defeated Kalamunda 36-13 in round one of the Home Building Society Rugby Union Competition today.

Despite first game jitters, Perth-Bayswater's dazzling running rugby shot them to a 21-6 half time lead, then locked the young Kalamunda team out of the second half with a comprehensive all round effort.

At Hartfield Park, Kalamunda dominated possession in the first half, with a powerful scrum and effective lineouts. Perth-Bayswater lived off scraps of possession but it was enough to spark up an electric back line that scored three times before the break.

Half back Mark Hill scored a magnificent solo try five minutes in, stealing ball from a ruck on his own 10 metre line and racing up the blindside. He completely flummoxed the Kalamunda defence with a classic dummy to his supporting wing, and cut back in to score under the posts. Joel McIvor converted.

Ten minutes later inside centre Julian Dunn sliced through from a tap penalty for centre Logan Cribb to score. McIvor again converted.

Kalamunda replied with two penalty kicks but later in the half Perth-Bayswater scored a magic try that saw all the back line handling before a casual flick pass behind the back put flyhalf Nathan McCourt over the line. McIvor added the extras for an impressive 21-6 lead at half time.

Perth-Bayswater increasingly dominated possession in the second half as Kalamunda faded, cementing the scrums and punishing the Forrestfield club with forward strength in the loose.

Cribb scored his second after 7 minutes, in the corner, and ten minutes later big young lock Michael Murphy crashed over following a powerful rolling maul.

Kalamunda spent perhaps five minutes of the spell out of their own half, but picked up a try when their openside flanker broke free from a ruck in the 22 and shot through sloppy defence to score. The try was converted but Kalamunda were playing for pride only at 31-13.

Mclvor wrapped up the game for Perth-Bayswater with a classy try in the corner, coasting across the face of the Kalamunda defence and dancing past two tacklers to score — but it could have been more, Perth-Bayswater inside backs blowing a couple of certain tries going for glory with unmarked men outside them.

In other grades it was mostly good news as well — Reserves defeated Kalamunda 27-22, A Grade defeated Kalamunda 18-14 and B Grade walloped Southern Lions II 43-2. Colts, however, lost to Kalamunda 24-0.

24 April

Perth-Bayswater Premier Grade's exciting start to the 2004 competition came back to earth with a thump at Morley Reserve when reigning Premiers Wests-Subiaco dumped them 41-3.

In other grades, Reserves lost to Wests-Subiaco 25-15; A Grade lost to Wests-Subiaco 45-5 but Under 19s downed ARKs 20-5.

Meanwhile, B Grade, the team formerly known as Fabulous Fifths, had a 46 - 0 win over Wanneroo at Morley in 31 degree heat. Even the presence of Big Bad Billy Watt was not enough to save Wanneroo from conceding eight tries to the men in black.

These were scored by Dwayne Barr (2), Noel Spittal (2), Mike Jones, Wayne Salter, Andy and Ken.

Two of the tries were outstanding. First Mike "Prince of Whales" Jones slipped blind from a scrum five meters out. With the defenders concentrating on "The Fridge" on the outside a gap opened up for the Welsh Wizard to slip through for a rare try. After that effort Mike was surprised not to be asked by Jamie to stand by for the Premier Grade. The other try of note was scored by Dwayne "The Train" Barr who scooped up a Wanneroo spilled ball behind our own line and sprinted the length of the field to score. None of us ran in support as it was too hot and too far to run. Handsome Danny Vella was linesman for the day due to injury but was close to quitting the job when the ref told him he could not drink beer on the job. The team agreed that it was the longest time between drinks for Danny that any of us could remember.

The Annual General Meeting of the Perth Bayswater Rugby Union Football Club Inc. was held at Morley Reserve on Sunday 9 November 2003 at 11 am.

Those present were noted, apologies were accepted and one proxy was tabled.

President Ray Goodall welcomed those present to the meeting and thanked them for their attendance.

The minutes of the Annual General Meeting held on Sunday 10 November 2002 be accepted without amendment. There were no matters arising.

The audited financial statement for the year ended 30 September 2003 was distributed to the meeting and duly accepted.

ELECTION OF OFFICE BEARERS

President: Ray Goodall.

Vice President: Mark Curlew.

Administration Secretary: Mary MacDougall.

Rugby Secretary: Mark Curlew.

Treasurer: Mary MacDougall.

Committee Members:

Paul Dannafaerd

Shelley Bye

Kevin McKeag

Dennis McLoughlin

Michael Whitney

Nikki McLoughlin

All nominations were accepted unopposed.

GENERAL BUSINESS

1. Life Member Steve McCormick thanked the Management Committee for their efforts in clearing the club debt, particularly President Ray Goodall and Treasurer Mary MacDougall. Bob Whitney supported these comments.

2. Steve McCormick asked how supporters could be encouraged to help. He also promoted the need to look after sponsors better. Ray Goodall tabled Chris Smith's suggestion that non-committee people be allocated small jobs to develop a more positive commitment to the club. Job descriptions are needed.

3. Shelly Bye said Thursday night training should be "club night" in the clubrooms for speeches etc. All teams should be in the clubrooms after training on Thursdays.

4. Chris Smith reported that players meals on Thursday evenings had not been viable and should be done only every second Thursday. It was suggested that a sausage sizzle be held at 5.30pm on Thursdays. Shelly Bye asked for meals for players after their games because they will be drinking. Chris Smith said that the canteen closes at the end of the 1st Grade game.

5. Ray Goodall thanked the Wanderers and Bob Whitney for organising the touch season. Mary MacDougall reported that next season a club person would be needed to organise the touch teams because Dave Tuckett is ill and unable to do it anymore.

6. Ray Goodall reported that the new rugby proposals for the 2004 season were on the table for those present to view.

7. Kevin McKeag asked if bar prices were to be increased. Ray Goodall said they would be reviewed in Committee. It was also noted that by keeping prices lower we are giving our members something for their membership. The Meeting closed at 12.07pm.

Committee

Player Registration & Fee Payments

For the 2004 season all players are expected to have their fees paid in full prior to the start of the season and if paying fee's off players must have their fees paid by the end of the first round. The only players that will be eligible to pay their fees by time payment will be players that paid their fees in full in 2003 by time payment.

Those players wishing to use this payment method must see either Debbie Shelford or Steve McCormick to make arrangements and sign a contract that their fees will be finalised by the end of the first round.

There will be no exceptions to these rules as the club has been put under considerable financial difficulty due to Players not paying their fees.

Any player that has in past years been a sponsored player will this year be responsible for securing their own sponsor. They must get a Sponsored Player form from either Deb Shelford or Steve McCormick. Committee members are not to be relied upon to secure sponsors for players.

There will be a Registrar at the club on Tuesday & Thursday nights from 6.00pm until 6.45pm for the collection of fees & the registration of players. Please make sure you allow time to see them prior to the commencement of training.

Your support in the prompt payment of your fees would be appreciated by the Committee.

2003 Annual Dinner

Another top night at the Barocco restaurant in Northbridge for the 2003 Perth-Bayswater Annual Dinner and Trophy Presentation saw some well deserved awards handed out, a few well prepared speeches made, some well enjoyed dancing — and some probably not very well people the next morning.

President Ray Goodall welcomed the assembled masses, MC Rick Boyd made one or two sad attempts at humour, and the entree and sumptuous buffet dinner were enjoyed by all present.

The usual endless array of awards was presented and sleep-inducing speeches were kept to a minimum.

Congratulations to the awards winners, notably first grade best and fairest (Dave Watene — who assured us that first grade would win the premiership next year); Players' Player (Dylan Davies); the Allan Hill Award for Courage and Commitment (Joel Mclvor); Coach of the Year (Wally Murphy); Clubman of the Year (Dennis McLoughlin); Clubwoman of the Year (Bubs Brown); and the President's Trophy (Mary McDougall).

The formalities concluded with Jason Legs Bastaja reciting a poem, as he optimistically called it, and the gyrating to loud music began.

The Sin Bin

Three young couples are planning their weddings and approach the local minister to perform the ceremony. He gives them the standard lecture about the sanctity of holy matrimony etc and warns them that to be welcome in his church, they must abstain from pre-marital sex until after the wedding. A month later and with the weddings nearly due, the minister visits them all to check up on progress. The first couple are a sober, church-going pair. "We've had no problems, Reverend," says the straight-laced groom-to-be, "We prayed daily and only held hands, and always in the presence of a chaperone." "Well done," says the minister, "You'll be very welcome in my church." The second couple are from good families but are not averse to a good time. "It was torture," says the young man reluctantly, "But with plenty of cold showers and long walks, we made it through without giving in to temptation." "That's fine," says the minister, "You'll be welcome in my church." The third couple have lived a bit of a wild life and are used all sorts of things not condoned by the good book. "I'm sorry, Reverend," confesses the prospective bridegroom, "We just couldn't do it. Sharlene here is just so damned cute. Why just last Sunday morning she was wearing a short skirt, and when she bent over to pick up a mop, it was just too much for me. I grabbed her and give her one right then and there!" "My son!" gasps the minister, "I'm afraid to say you won't be welcome in my church!" "No," says the young man with a sigh, "We're not welcome in Bunnings any more either."

The faithful few turn out for the clubrooms working bee.

The Sin Bin

Two boys are playing with a rugby ball on the street outside Eden Park, Auckland when one is attacked by a vicious Rottweiler. Thinking quickly, the other boy takes a stick and manages to wedge it down the dog's collar and twist, luckily breaking the dog's neck and stopping the attack. A reporter who is strolling by sees the incident, and rushes over to interview the boy. "Young Blues Fan Saves Friend From Vicious Animal," he starts writing in his notebook. "But I'm not a Blues fan," the little hero replies. "Sorry, since we are in Auckland, I just assumed you were," said the reporter and starts again. "All Black Fan Rescues Friend from Horrific Attack..." he continued writing in his notebook. "I'm not an All Black fan either!", the boy said. "I thought everyone in Auckland supported either Auckland or the All Blacks. So what team DO you root for?" the reporter asked. "I'm a Wallaby fan!", the child beamed. The reporter starts a new sheet in his notebook and writes, "Little Aussie Bastard Kills Beloved Family Pet."

A New Zealander buys several sheep, hoping to breed them for wool. After several weeks, he notices that none of the sheep is getting pregnant, and calls a vet for help. The vet tells him that he should try artificial insemination. The farmer doesn't have the slightest idea what this means but, not wanting to display his ignorance, only asks the vet how he will know when the sheep are pregnant. The vet tells him that they will stop standing around and instead will lie down and wallow in the grass when they are pregnant. The man hangs up and gives it some thought. He comes to the conclusion that artificial insemination means he has to impregnate the sheep. So, he loads the sheep into his Landrover, drives them out into the woods, has sex with them all, brings them back and goes to bed. Next morning, he wakes and looks out at the sheep. Seeing that they are all still standing around, he deduces that the first try didn't take, and loads them in the Landrover again. He drives them out to the woods, bangs each sheep twice for good measure and brings them back and falls into bed. Next morning, he wakes to find the sheep still just standing round. One more try, he tells himself, and proceeds to load them up and drive them out to the woods. He spends all day shagging the sheep and, upon returning home, drags himself into bed exhausted. The next morning, he cannot even raise himself from the bed to look at the sheep. He asks his wife to look out and tell him if the sheep are lying in the grass. "No," she says, "They're all in the Landrover and one of them is beeping the horn.!!"

An ice cream man was found lying on the floor of his van covered with hundreds and thousands, chocolate fudge and a flake. The Police report stated they suspect the man topped himself.

The Police arrested two kids yesterday; one was drinking battery acid, the other was eating fireworks. They charged one and let the other one off.
